Liſbon, June 27. The Court has given freſh Orders to arm with all Diſpatch two Men of War, and two Frigats, to cruize againſt the Barbary Corſairs, who continue to infeſt the Coaſts of this Kingdom, and greatly annoy our Navigation.

Florence, July 13. Laſt Week Senator Guadagno, who has the Inſpection of the publick Roads, ſet out from hence for Bologna, by Order of the Court of Vienna, to treat again with that Government about the new Road which they have been ſo long preſſed to make, to join that which has been made, with great Expence, from hence to the Confines of that State, and which the Bologneſe have conſtantly refuſed to comply with, on any other Condition, than that the Expence ſhould be diſburſed by Tuſcany, but be deducted from the Debt which the Empreſs contracted with that Legation during the late War; to which the Emperor has conſented; and M. Guadagno is gone thither to ſettle ſome few remaining Points, to put the Works in Execution. M. Clementi, Miniſter from the Court of Spain to that of Naples, arrived here laſt Week on his Way thither.

Genoa, July 16. Letters from Baſtia of the 5th and 8th Inſtant adviſe, that the Chiefs of the Malecontents had ſent 500 Men to Nebbio, to chaſtiſe ſome of thoſe Inhabitants, who had inſulted the Magiſtrates, and ſeveral had been committed to Priſon. The Inhabitants of Baſtia tia have nominated two Deputies to come hither to make Application to this Government, that M. Grimaldi might be continued as Commiſſary General; and if the Republick ſhould recall him from thence, to deſire that his Succeſſor might be a Perſon of equal Rank with him. The ſame Letters mention, that the Deputies appointed by the Malecontents to treat of an Accommodation with the Republick, were not yet arrived at Baſtia; which Delay had raiſed a Suſpicion in the Commiſſary General, that the Chiefs were endeavouring to put off the opening of the Conferences, in order to keep up the Fermentation amongſt the People, and to favour their own private Views.

Warſaw, July 17. The Prince of Radzivill, Palatin of Novogrod, who returned hither ſome Days ago from Dreſden, whither he went lately to ſee the Camp formed by the Saxon Troops, ſet out on Wedneſday Morning for his Seat in Great Poland.

Vienna, July 18. Count Charles Coloredo, who is appointed Envoy Extraordinary from this Court to the King of Great Britain, ſet out laſt Week for that Court. He is to go through Bamberg, where he is to aſſiſt in Quality of Imperial Commiſſary, at the Election of a new Prince Biſhop.

Peſnania, July 18. We hear from Gratz in Great Poland, that there has been, for ſome Days paſt, in the Neighbourhood of the ſaid Town, a great Quantity of Locuſts, and that they have greatly damaged the Fruits of the Earth, and particularly the Corn.

Copenhagen, July 26. The Court is gone to paſs ſome Days at Jagerſprys, but his Majeſty propoſes to return to Friedenſburg on Tueſday or Wedneſday next. As the Queen advances happily in her Pregnancy, 'tis aſſured that their Majeſties will remove to Town, or into this Neighbourhood, about the Beginning of September.

Bruſſels, July 30. It is reported here, that our National Troops are going to be augmented with three new Regiments; and that the Colonels, and other principal Officers of this new Corps, are already named. We learn from French Flanders, that the Troops which are to form the Camp at Aimeries, are in Expectation of final Orders to aſſemble at that Place.

Paris, Aug. 1. His moſt Chriſtian Majeſty will remove from Compiegne about the Middle of next Week, and take the Diverſion of Shooting, round ſeveral of the Royal Palaces, before he returns to Town.

Hague, Aug. 2. The States of Holland and Weſtfrizeland, who Yeſterday opened their Aſſembly, have this Day continued their Deliberations. M. Jean Hop took the Oath Yeſterday in the Aſſembly of the States General, to qualify himſelf for the Charge of Treaſurer-General of the United Provinces, which has lately been conferred upon him; and in Conſequence of which, he was introduced in the ſame Quality to the Council of State by the Baron Heckeren of Brantzenbourg, Deputy in the Aſſembly of their High Mightineſſes, on the Part of the Province of Guelderland.
